

Heritage accommodation

Kangaroo Island

SOUTH
AUSTRALIA

Government
of South Australia

Department of Environment,
Water and Natural Resources

National Parks
South
Australia

Top spots

For bookings and vacancies

P: (08) 8553 4410

E: kiparksaccom@sa.gov.au

www.parks.sa.gov.au/Klaccommodation

Cape Willoughby Seymour and Thomas Cottages

Spacious five bedroom lodges comfortably sleeping 8 people, on the breath-taking eastern most point of Kangaroo Island.

The lighthouse offers stunning 360 degree views of the rugged coastline and the ever-changing seas of Backstairs Passage.

Cape du Couedic – Karatta, Parndana and Troubridge Lodges

Classic Light Keepers lodges carved from local Limestone in 1907. They offer three bedrooms comfortably sleeping 6 people.

Set within Flinders Chase National Park, in the south west corner of Kangaroo Island, they are only a short walk to spectacular Admirals Arch.

Cape Borda

Choose from Flinders Light Lodge, a gracious stone lodge with three bedrooms comfortably sleeping 6 people, or the cosy one bedroom Hartley Hut, sleeping a maximum of 3 people, or Woodward Hut, a quaint bunkhouse for two.

Set within Flinders Chase National Park at the ruggedly beautiful far north western corner of Kangaroo Island.

Rocky River

Peace and comfort beckons at the end of the day exploring Flinders Chase National Park, with heritage cottages situated within walking distance of the Visitor Centre and Chase Café.

Choose from May's Homestead, built in the 1890s with two bedrooms and sleeping a maximum of 6 people, or Postman's Cottage, a single room stone hut sleeping up to 4 people.

Kangaroo Island's National Parks also offer a range of camping options check out the options online at www.parks.sa.gov.au or call the Flinders Chase Visitor Centre on (08) 8553 4490 or email flinderschase@sa.gov.au