Other things to see and do in Adelaide

Cleland Wildlife Park

One of Adelaide's top tourist attractions. Feed kangaroos as they laze, wander through wetlands, hold a koala and immerse yourself amongst 130 species of Australian wildlife. Open seven days and only 20 minutes from the city!

Port River Dolphin Cruises

What could be more relaxing than taking a cruise along the Port River. Sit back and enjoy the scenery and see how many dolphins you can spot along the way!

The wine capital of Australia

There are over 200 cellar doors on Adelaide's doorstep. Adelaide is the wine capital of Australia. We're sure you've heard of the Barossa Valley. There is so much to explore, including McLaren Vale, the Adelaide Hills, Clare Valley and more!

Adelaide Oval

Adelaide Oval has hosted both cricket and football at the highest level since colonial times and its iconic, historic and cultural presence remains today. The iconic ground has brought the two sports together at the redeveloped Adelaide Oval, delivering an internationally renowned and world-class venue for the 21st century.

The festival state

Adelaide's rich cultural life is demonstrated not just in its galleries and theatres, but most dynamically in its calendar of festivals and events. From world music to sports cars, opera to cycling – Adelaide's events calendar is world class.
